

Braverman Greenspun is pleased to announce that Maria Boboris has joined the firm as an associate. Maria is an experienced commercial litigator, having previously worked with Emmett, Marvin, Marvin & Martin, LLC, DLA Piper, LLP and Cahill Gordon & Reindel, LLP. Maria's practice will be focused on representing cooperatives and condominiums in complex litigation. Maria received her J.D. from the St. John's University School of Law and her B.A. from The George Washington University.