

Tatiana Pawlowski Joins Braverman Greenspun

We are happy to announce that Tatiana Pawlowski will be starting her legal career as an associate at Braverman Greenspun, P.C. Tatiana is a 2017 cum laude graduate of Brooklyn Law School and was this year's recipient of the Phyllis Mehler Seavey and Robert W. Seavey Scholarship Prize, which is awarded to the graduating student with the highest average in a land finance course. Earlier this year, at Brooklyn Law School's Center for Urban Business Entrepreneurship panel discussion entitled "Growing Greens in the Grid: The Future of Urban Agriculture in New York City," Tatiana presented a white paper she authored on expanding urban agriculture in New York City through sustainable policy which will be published in an upcoming issue of the ABA Journal of Affordable Housing & Community Development Law. Tatiana accomplished these notable achievements while working full time as a paralegal at BG and attending law school in the evenings.
